The Lovely Bones Susie Salmon Dramatic Monologue

I was slipping away, that's what it felt like, life was leaving me, but I wasn't afraid.
(pause)
Then I remembered:
"There was something I was meant to do; somewhere I was meant to be."
I was in the blue horizon between heaven and earth.
The days were unchanging and every night I dreamt the same dream.
The sound of my heart beating like a hammer against cloth
(pause)
I would hear them calling.
The voice of the dead.
I would always come back to the same door.
And I was afraid.
I knew if I went outside I would never come out.
When my mother came to my room, I realized the all this time, I had been had been waiting so long, I was afraid she wouldn't come....
(pause)
meant, the moment when we really choose to go.
At best you might be able to make a choice, but most of the time you're just sitting down.
My name is Salmon, like the fish. First name, Susie.
I was 14 years old, when I was murdered on December 6th 1973.
I was here for a moment, and then I was gone.
